

On June 29, the Shared Assessments Summit will host Denise Anderson, President of National Health Information Sharing & Analysis Center (NH-ISAC) and Chair of the National Council of ISAC's and Ken Peterson, Founder and CEO of Churchill & Harriman for a lunchtime discussion on "Cybersecurity Information Sharing – Benefits and Best Practices for the Health Care Industry." Following her recent Congressional testimony, Ms. Anderson and Mr. Peterson will discuss how the public and private sectors are working together to address cyber threats to the health care industry and other important market segments. Other discussion topics to include the mission of ISACs, the critical information sharing happening across the ISAC community, the focus of NH-ISAC and what health care organizations can do to be better prepared to face future cyber threat challenges.

<https://sharedassessments.org/wp-content/uploads/2017/05/SA-Summit-Agenda-2017.pdf>